Calculate when to successfully complete a research assignment.

Research Assignment Scheduler

Calculate the best schedule for your upcoming research assignments:

- Select the Start Date (when you plan to begin your research paper) and the End Date (when the assignment is due).
- Click "Calculate Schedule" to view the steps and suggested due dates for your research process.
- After your schedule is calculated, click on “Save Your Schedule” at the bottom and print or save your schedule.
- Remember: Check this schedule against your instructor’s syllabus to make sure there are no conflicts.

| Start Date: | 07/08/2016 |
| End Date:   | 07/28/2016 |

Calculate Schedule

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Step One</th>
<th>Done by July 9, 2016</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Understand Your Assignment

- Read your assignment carefully before you start to ensure you understand the requirements.
- Note any specific deadlines for submitting your topic, sources, outlines, or drafts.
- Consult with your instructor if you have questions in these areas.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Step Two</th>
<th>Done by July 10, 2016</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Define Your Topic

- Write down your research question or topic.
- Note keywords and subject terms that can be used as search terms.
- Go to the Writing Center for help brainstorming, outlining, or talking through your topic ideas.
- Visit the Library’s InfoGuides for the best places to start with your research.
- Consult Library Databases for Topic Ideas (note that logging in is your student ID # and the last 4 digits of your SS#):
