MLA Works Cited Examples

Before you cite in MLA

Double space everything. If your reference entry is two or more lines, indent every line after the first line .5 inches from the left margin (turn on “hanging indent” in Microsoft Word). Pay close attention to the punctuation and formatting in these examples. You have to hunt for information when citing a source, but if your source lacks information, such as day or month of publication, that’s OK—skip it. You may include the date you accessed a source but it is not a requirement. Not all kinds of texts are covered here, but be sure to apply these examples to similar texts you encounter. For a full understanding of MLA references, consult the 8th edition of the MLA Handbook or visit the PurdueOwl.com
